

I enjoy the services provided by XM Satellite Radio. The ability to get instant weather and traffic is a great service and should not be stopped or regulated. This is a service that I pay for and I should have the choice. If this is taken away it would be a tremendous infringement on my right to choose. Do not let this happen.

Jeffrey B. Felker